ImmorTails of Egypt

WHAT'S THE STORY?

Regal. Aloof. Mystical. There's a reason hiss-tory says that the Ancient Egyptians used to worship cats.

Bastet, Mafdet and Sekhmet may be cute, but they are equally mischievous. Each has been bestowed the fortunes and can harness the powers of the ancestors – which are actually the Ancient Egyptian deities that they're named after, pretty paw-some right?

No adventure is complete without an arch-enemy, the slippery serpent Apep is on a mission to steal their treasures. We have a feeling the gods might have something to say about that..

FEATURES

Symbol transformations, Expanding Wilds and a quirky theme sees a new and exciting addition with a feline twist on ancient history.

Bastet, Sekhmet and Mafdet sit at the top of the grid with metres above them so players can clearly see their progress and how many of the kittens they are about to have transformed into Expanding Wilds.

There is the opportunity to have all five reels covered by Expanding Wilds maximising the potential further.

The reels expand from 5x3 to 5x4 during the Free Spins and a Multiplier is applied which is designed as a locked treasure chest which bursts open when wins are achieved.

The way the kittens transform into big cats is an innovative way of tying features, theme and narrative together as you can physically see the kittens harness the power of their ancestors on the grid.

The narrative of conflict between the snake and kittens plays out on the grid with humorous animated scuffles.

From kitten to Cat God, this game is simply purr-fection.

MEET THE CHARACTERS

BASTET, SEKHMET AND MAFDET

Charged as protectors of their ancestors' treasures, these cute kittens are more mischievous than you might think, it's pretty handy that they have nine lives to rely on!

APEP

The villain of the story, this sneaky snake will do anything to slither his way inside the tombs of the gods.

IN-GAME ARTWORK

Vibrant with everything you would expect to see in an Ancient Egypt themed game, the designers have added feline tweaks to hieroglyphics, Ancient Egyptian motifs and set on a cat post meet tomb background.

The characters themselves are fun and characterful, each with their own purr-sonality, and the way they transform from cute to mighty before our eyes is beautiful.
