players with games that are new and different. Games with long life cycles, that reside on top positions with tier-1 operators.

Key to success

Stakelogic is best described as an end-to-end software factory where each element of a game (graphics, animations, sounds, game server and UI) is developed in-house. Every game is tweaked and tuned to the level of ultimate user.

Financial performance

With over 100 employees and offices in 4 countries, Stakelogic realised 300% growth in revenue in 2020.

Exceeding expectations

Creating top games is an art. Players need to be surprised, time and time again. The animations, the sounds, and the game logic need to be balanced in a way that it creates a feeling of sensation that attracts and retains players. Combining 'old school' slot machine principles with the limitless possibilities of on-line technology. It is the world of Stakelogic, it is what we do best.

Focus on players

Stakelogic created a portfolio of more than 100 slot games. A mix of global and localised content that enables our clients to compose a balanced game offering to their players.
