HOW TO PLAY

THE DEALING OF THE CARDS

Super Andar Bahar is played with a single 52-card deck. The game starts when the first card, called the 'Joker', is dealt.

The aim of the game is to predict which side will be dealt a card that matches the 'Joker'. Will it be dealt to the Andar side or to the Bahar side?

After betting time is closed, the dealer will deal cards first to the Andar side, then to the Bahar side, and so on, alternating between the two sides.

The dealing continues until a card with the same value as the 'Joker' is dealt regardless of the suit. Whichever side is dealt a matching card is declared the winner.

PLACING BETS

You can choose to place a main bet on either Andar or Bahar. You can also place one or more side bets (see page 4), where you guess how many cards will be dealt before a match with the 'Joker' is made. The side bet/s can be placed with or without a main bet.

Players can place bets before the 'Joker' has been dealt if they desire, including during deck changeover periods, so the fast pace of the game is maintained.

ENGAGING SIDE BETS

There are ten side bets to choose from ranging from 'Cards 1-5', 'Cards 6-10' and so on, through to 'Cards 46-49'.

For example, if you think that a card matching the 'Joker' will be dealt at the very end of the pack, you might choose the 'Cards 46-49' side bet. Similarly, if you think a card matching the 'Joker' will be dealt in the first five cards, you would choose the 'Cards 1-5' side bet.

One of things that makes the side bets super-exciting is that the payouts get bigger and bigger in line with the increasing number of cards needed to be dealt before a card matching the 'Joker' is revealed. Remember: the dealing continues until a card with the same value as the 'Joker' is dealt regardless of the suit.

THE SIDE BET MULTIPLIERS

Generating even more excitement, one to five random multipliers are randomly applied to the side bets in every game round for the opportunity to win up to an amazing 4000x.

If the winning side bet receives a multiplier, your payout for this bet will be multiplied accordingly.
