MIXED SYMBOLS FEATURE

Normally forming winning combinations requires three matching symbols to appear on the same payline. However, there are two different types of mixing symbols that can payout winning combinations even if all of the symbols on the payline are of the same type but do not match. So, for example, if two double Sevens symbol appears on the same payline as a single Seven symbol, the player will receive a Mixed Symbol payout. The same mechanic is applicable to Bar and multiple Bar symbols. Please keep in mind that Sevens and Bars do not mix together and Mixed Symbol Feature payout is only awarded if payline contains symbols of the same type - either Sevens or Bars. Mixed Symbol feature is awarded according to paytable regardless of what symbols of the same type are present, as long as they all don't match. For example, that the player will receive the same Mixed Symbol payout for a payline with two Double Sevens symbol and one Single Seven symbol as for a payline with one Double Sevens and two Single Sevens symbols.
