  - Weekly Blackjack Tournament
  - Weekly Mega Wheel Tournament
  - Weekly Baccarat Tournament
- Weekly cash prizes
- There is no additional development required from the operator side.

MECHANICS

- Mechanics: Highest total value of all points received for consecutive wins
- The score is based on the total amount of accumulated points that will be granted to a player for every Consecutive Qualifying Win and added to the total number of points received by the player for each Weekly Tournament separately.

MINIMUM BET REQUIREMENTS:

Currency	Roulette	Blackjack	Mega Wheel	Baccarat
€/£	0.5	10	0.5	0.5

WIN QUALIFIER

- A Win Qualifier is used to define whether the win is considered as a Qualifying Win or not for the point calculation of the respective Weekly Tournament.
- If payout (win + bet)/Qualifying Bet is greater than the Win Qualifier for the participating games of each Weekly Tournament, the win is considered as Qualifying Win.

WIN QUALIFIER
Game Category	Roulette	Mega Wheel	Blackjack	Baccarat
Win Qualifier	2	1	1	1

WIN EVENTS IN GAMES

- A Qualifying Win is an in-game win where a player is awarded the win and stake of the winning bet after placing a Qualifying Bet.
- Side bets won't be considered towards the Weekly Tournaments score.
- Push/Draw is not considered as a win or a loss.
- If a player takes multiple seats at a Blackjack table, the Win Qualifier is considering total bet and total payout across all seats together.
- If a player places any qualifying Main Bets and/or Bets Behind, together with Side Bets within one game round, only the qualifying Main Bets and/or Bets Behind will be considered for the Weekly Tournament score.
- If a player places multiple Qualifying Bets on a participating table, the total Qualifying Bet and total Qualifying Win will be considered for the Weekly Tournament score.

WIN QUALIFIER EXAMPLE

BLACKJACK

Win Qualifier in this example results into 2, therefore this hand is considered as Qualifying Win for Weekly Blackjack Tournament.

- Initial bet: €20
- Game result: The player wins with hand that's not 21.
- Payout: 20 (win) + 20 (initial bet) = 40
- Win Qualifier calculation:  $40 \text{ (payout)} / 20 \text{ (total bet)} = 2$

CONSECUTIVE QUALIFYING WIN DEFINITION

A Consecutive Qualifying Win is defined as follows:

- One Qualifying Win that succeeds another Qualifying Win in back-to-back games on the same table or any other table of the participating games in the same Weekly Tournament will result in two Consecutive Qualifying Wins.
  - Consecutive Qualifying Wins streak can be disrupted for a player only by losing bet(s) that have met the minimum bet requirement or winning bet(s) that failed to reach the required Win Qualifier.
  - Consecutive Qualifying Wins streak will be paused in Weekly Blackjack Tournament if the Win Qualifier ratio equals to 1.
  - Consecutive Qualifying Wins streak will be paused if a player places bets only on 1:1 odds bets for Weekly Roulette Tournament and on Side bets only for Weekly Baccarat Tournament.
  - The maximum time between one Qualifying Win and the next Consecutive Qualifying Win is limited by the Weekly Tournament schedule.
  - The last Consecutive Qualifying Win that will be accounted for in a running Weekly Tournament is the one received by a player at the end of the Weekly Tournament.
  - After the end of a Weekly Tournament the Consecutive Qualifying Win count will be set to zero and start to be accounted for the next Weekly Tournament.

CONSECUTIVE POINTS CALCULATION

The score is based on the total amount of accumulated points that will be granted to a player for every Consecutive Qualifying Win and added to the total number of points received by the player for each Weekly Tournament separately.

The Tournament's Points System will be based on Consecutive Qualifying Win with different Points Distribution for each new Consecutive Qualifying Win.
