 - The maximum time between one (1) Qualifying Win and the next Consecutive Qualifying Win is limited by the Weekly Tournament schedule, as detailed further below.
 - The last Consecutive Qualifying Win that will be accounted for in a running Weekly Tournament is the Consecutive Qualifying Win received by a player at the end of a Weekly Tournament that is determined in Weekly Tournament Schedule. Upon the lapse of such period, the Consecutive Qualifying Win count will be set to zero (0) and shall start to be accounted for the next Weekly Tournament.
- Prizes will be distributed to winners according to their position in the leaderboard, when each Weekly Tournament ends, descending from highest to lowest depending on the player’s total score.

- The leaderboard is ranked in accordance with the score. The score is based on the total amount of accumulated points that will be granted to a player for every Consecutive Qualifying Win and added to the total number of points received by the player for each Weekly Tournament separately.
- The point distribution for Consecutive Qualifying Wins is given to players as per the table below whereby the number of points grows exponentially.

For illustrative purposes only, if a player receives two (2) Consecutive Qualifying Wins, the player is awarded one (1) point.
